Company Overview

Headquartered in Minnesota, Global Talent Solutions is an Engaged Executive Search / Recruiting Firm providing talent solutions for the Agriculture, Biofuels, Renewables, and supporting industries since 1997. Our clients range from start-ups to established companies, small business to Fortune 500 companies (domestic and international).

At the heart of Global Talent Solutions is its staff, developed and grown from deep agriculture roots, this has paved the way for our global fundamental foundation...

Food – Feed – Fuel – Fiber

We are the David in David vs Goliath within the recruiting world...a small boutique executive search firm with the abilities and unparalleled success comparing to the large, multi office/continent companies.

Committed to Business Integrity,
Professionalism, Qualified Candidates, Quality
Client Service, Confidentiality & Dependability.

RECRUITING / EXECUTIVE SEARCH Talent Solutions for:
AGRICULTURE – BIOFUELS – RENEWABLES

WHAT'S THE DIFFERENCE?

Global Talent Solutions is comprised of 25 + years of networking with candidates within the industries of Agriculture, Food, Biofuels and Renewables; a data base made up of executives, professionals and technical specialists connected to our industries of focus. We provide our clients only with well prepared, qualified candidates and have an extremely strong retention rate.

OUR NITCH:

We are unique from other recruiting companies because of our commitment to never sourcing our candidates from job boards.

We seek candidates who are matched with our clients through our industry database not from job boards or advertising. Frankly, we don't have to, as we truly have an effective means of finding serious and industry focused candidates simply at our fingertips.

RECRUITING / EXECUTIVE SEARCH

Talent Solutions for:
Agriculture - Biofuels - Biomass
Cleantech - Renewables

OUR INTEGRITY:

Global Talent Solutions has been committed to demonstrating integrity in how we conduct our business, and to maintaining the highest ethical standards. The decades-long relationships with many clients illustrate our record in delivering on this commitment.

OUR RESEARCH:

It all begins with our unparalleled global database of food, agribusiness, biofuels and renewables executives, professionals and technical specialists. But our research does not stop there. The professional network of basic research into target organizations, as well as thorough use of sophisticated, real-time research tools add depth as we develop a diverse list of potential candidates for our clients.

OUR COMMUNICATION:

We provide unsurpassed levels of personalized attention and insight to our clients including frequent communications and exceptional documentation. The President's experience and expertise make him a trusted advisor during the selection process through final negotiations with the successful candidate.

OUR GOVERNING PRINCIPLES:

To assure clients excellence, value, and integrity in our service, Global Talent Solutions:

- Accepts only assignments within the firm's scope of competence.
- Acts in full compliance with all state & federal laws & regulations, such as the Equal Employment Opportunity & Americans with Disabilities Acts.
- Establishes written understanding of the objectives, scope and specifications of the services to be provided prior to accepting the assignment.
- Holds in strictest confidence all information concerning the business affairs of clients & all others with whom we interact during the course of any and all assignments.

OUR GUARANTEE:

If the selected candidate is asked to leave/dismissed from the organization for reason of poor performance within 12 months of the date of hire, Global Talent Solutions will conduct a new search to replace this candidate for no additional fee.

Global Talent Solutions works with a select few industry partners when required by client searches to conduct drug screenings, sensitive background checks, personality trait profiles and industry-leading relocation support. We will provide valuable information to help in the hiring process at our expense.

OUR TESTIMONIALS:

“I have been very pleased with Global Talent Solutions expertise and service. Global Talent Solutions provided a complete turnkey process for recruiting key executives for our green field project in Minnesota. I would recommend Global Talent Solutions to anyone in the Agribusiness or Renewable Energy sectors.”
